= Part III Reading Comprehension (20%)

题目说明 Directions: There are two passages in this section. Each passage is followed by some questions or unfinished statements. For each of them there are 4 choices marked A, B, C, and D. Decide on the ONE that best answers the question or finishes the statement,

Passage 1: Questions 1 to 4 are based on the following passage.

Most people have had a dog or wanted one as their companion at some time in their lives. If you are thinking of buying a dog, however, you should first decide what sort of companion you need and whether the dog is likely to be happy in the surroundings you can provide. Specialists advice is useful to help you choose the most suitable kind of dog. But in part the decision depends on common sense. Different dogs were originally developed to perform specific tasks. So, if you want a dog to protect you or your house, for example, you should choose the one that has the right size and characteristics. You must also be ready to devote a great deal of time to training the dog when it is young and give it the exercise it needs throughout its life, unless you live in the countryside and can let it run freely. Dogs are demanding pets. Cats love the house and they are satisfactory with their place where it is safe, but a dog is loyal to its master and consequently wants him to show proof of his affection. The best time to buy a baby dog is when it is between 6 and 8 weeks old so that it can transfer its love from its mother to its master. If baby dogs have not established a relationship with the human being until they are over three months old, their strong relationship will always be with dogs. They are likely to be shy when they are brought out into the world to become good pets.

41. Which of the following is NOT true according to the passage? (2.5分)
- A. You can always get help from the specialists.

 - C. Whether the dog will fit the environment.
 - D. Whether the dog will get along with the other pets in the house.
43. Why does the writer say a dog is a more demanding pet than a cat? (2.5分)
- A. It must be trained so that it won't bite.
 - B. It demands more food and space.
 - C. It needs more love and care.
 - D. It must be looked after carefully.
44. Why is it advised to buy a baby dog under three months old? (2.5分)
- A. It's easier to buy a baby dog under three months old.
 - B. They are less likely to be shy with human beings.
 - C. They are less likely to run away.
 - D. It's easier for them to form a relationship with their masters.

Passage 2: Questions 5 to 8 are based on the following passage.

In the traditional marriage, the man worked to earn money for the family. Most men worked in an office, a factory, or some other places away from the home. Since the man earned the money, he paid the bills. The money was used for food, clothes, a house, and other family needs. The man made most of the decisions. He was the boss.

In the traditional marriage, the woman seldom worked away from the house. She stayed at home to care for the children and her husband. She cooked the meals, cleaned house, washed the clothes, and did other household work. Her job at home was very important.

In recent years, many couples continue to have a traditional relationship of this kind. The man has a job and earns the money for the family. The woman stays at home and cares for the children and the house. Many Americans are happy with this kind of marriage. But some other Americans have a different impression of marriage and family responsibilities.

There are two important differences in male and female roles now. One is that both men and women have many more choices. They may choose to marry or to stay single. They may choose to work or stay at home. Both men and women may choose roles that are comfortable for them.

A second difference in male and female roles is that within marriage many decisions and responsibilities are shared. The husband and wife may choose to have children or not. If they have children, the man may take care of them some of the time, all of the time, or not at all. The woman may want to stay at home and take care of the children. Or she may want to go to work. Men and women now decide these things together in a marriage. Many married people now share these decisions and the responsibilities of their families.

45, Which of the following is NOT true in the traditional marriage? (2.5分)

- A. Men worked at a job to earn money for the family.
