Part ii Cloze (20%)

题目说明: Directions: There are 20 blanks in the following passage. For each blank there are three choices marked A, B and C, You should choose the ONE that best fits into the passage.

One time as I was walking on the street, a young man ran by hurriedly, brushing 1 (A. against; B. into; C. up) my handbag. Even as he continued on his way, he turned back and said "sorry" to me. 2 (A. Still; B. Even; C. While) in a rush, he didn* t forget to apologize. One day, after I bought some apples, the salesman was giving me the 3 (A. fruit; B. note; C. change), but I wasn* t ready for it, and a coin dropped on the ground. "I'm sorry," he said while 4 (A. bending down; B. leaning back; C. sitting up) to pick it up. I was 5 (A. pleased; B. sad; C. puzzled) — why would he apologize when it was my 6 (A. fault; B. error; C. money)? Another time, I stepped on a man* s foot in a/an 7 (A. bus; B. plane; C. escalator). At the same time, we 8 (A. all; B. both; C. neither) said "sorry" . I thought it interesting: Was it really 9 (A. necessary; B. pleasant; C. annoying) for him to apologize? Later on, an American friend 10 (A. told; B. explained; C. spoke) to me that according to the American ideas, the escalator is a public place 11 (A. and; B. but; C. if) everyone should be able to stand in it. After someone 12 (A. occupies; B. stands; C. gets) a position in the escalator, 13 (A. make; B. making; C. makes) it difficult for someone else to find a place to stand, isn* t it necessary to 14 (A. have; B. express; C. send) an apology? During my stay in America, I often came across situations 15 (A. of which; B. on which; C. in which) I was supposed to say "sorry" . I 16 (A. gradually; B. really; C. greatly) realized that when friction (摩擦) 17 (A. appears; B. comes; C. arrives) in daily life, Americans don, t care much about 18 (A. where; B. why; C. who) is wrong. If someone is troubled, a "sorry" is 19 (A. never; B. sometimes; C. always) necessary. Perhaps this is 20 (A. why; B. that; C. how) I never saw anyone quarreling on the buses, subways or streets in America.

Part III Reading Comprehension (20%)

题目说明： Directions: There are two passages in this section. Each passage is followed by some questions or unfinished statements. For each of them there are 4 choices marked A, B, C, and D. Decide on the ONE that best answers the question or finishes the statement.

Passage 1 : Questions 1 to 4 are based on the following passage.

Today most people speak English when they meet foreigners. It has become the international language.

There are many reasons why English has become so popular. One of them is that English has become the language of business. Another important reason is that popular American culture, like movies, music, and McDonald' s, has quickly spread throughout the world. It has brought its language with it.

Is it good that English has spread to all parts of the world so quickly? I don* t know. It* s important to have a language that the people of the earth have in common. Our world has become very global and we need to communicate with one another. On the other hand, English is a quite complicated language to learn and it brings its culture with it. Do we really need that?

Scientists have already tried to create an artificial language that isn, t too difficult and doesn* t include any one group, s culture. It is called Esperanto. But it hasn* t become popular. But maybe the popularity of English won* t last that long either. Who knows? There are more people in the world who speak Chinese than any other language. Maybe someday Chinese will be the new international language.

41. According to the author, one reason for the popularity of English is that_____(2.5 分)

- O A . American culture is spreading throughout the world
- O B . American people like to do business with foreigners
- O C . English is a beautiful language
- O D . English is not difficult to learn

42、 The author thinks that_____ . (2.5 分)

- O A . it is good that English has spread to all parts of the world so quickly
 - O B . someday another language might replace English as an international language
 - O C . it' s not necessary for us to have an international language
 - O D . we can learn a language without learning its culture

43、 There are more people in the world who speak _____ than any other language.

(2.5 分)

- A . English
 - B . Chinese
 - C . French
 - D . Esperanto

44、 In "It has brought its language with it" (the second paragraph) , the first word "it" refers to _____. (2.5 分)

- A . an important reason
- B . American people as a whole
- C . popular American culture
- D . the world

Passage 2 : Questions 5 to 8 are based on the following passage.

You probably know who Marie Curie was, but you may not have heard of Rachel Carson. Of the outstanding ladies listed below, who do you think was the most important woman of the past 100 years? Jane Addams (1860-1935) Anyone who has ever been helped by a social worker has Jane Addams to thank. Addams helped the poor and worked for peace. She encouraged a sense of community by creating shelters and promoting education and services for people in need in 1931, Addams became the first American woman to win the Nobel Peace Prize. Rachel Carson (1907-1964) If it weren't for Rachel Carson, the environmental movement might not exist today. Her popular 1962 book Silent Spring raised awareness of the dangers of pollution and the harmful effects of chemicals on humans and on the world's lakes and oceans. Sandra Day O'Connor (1930-present) When Sandra Day O'Connor finished third in her class at Stanford Law School, in 1952, she could not find work at a law firm because she was a woman. She became an Arizona state senator and in 1981 the first woman to join the U.S. Supreme Court. O'Connor gave the deciding vote in many important cases during her 24 years on the top court. Rosa Parks (1913-2005) On December 1, 1955, in Montgomery, Alabama, Rosa Parks would not give up her seat on a bus to a passenger. Her simple act landed Parks in prison. But it also set off the Montgomery bus boycott. It lasted for more than a year, and kicked off the civil-rights movement. "The only tired I was, was tired of giving in," said Parks.

45、 What is Jane Addams noted for in history? (2.5 分)

- A . Her social work.
- B . Her writing on the dangers of pollution.
- C . Her efforts to win a prize.
- D . Her poor background.
